

RESPECT Coming to Jefferson City October 22

Transformation begins with RESPECT! We're thrilled to invite you to Joel Slack's full RESPECT Seminar sponsored by the Office of Transformation and the Department of Mental Health (DMH). Joel is a dynamic, engaging speaker who shares his perspective and personal experiences regarding the mental health system and the relationship between service provider and consumer. RESPECT is relevant to all of us.

RESPECT Seminar Details

Speaker: Joel Slack
Time: 10:00 a.m. — 3:30 p.m.
(break for lunch from 12:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.)
Date: Wednesday, October 22, 2008
Location: Rickman Center
3519 Bennett Lane
Jefferson City, MO 65101
For direction go to www.rickman.info

Divided into two sessions with a break in between, the RESPECT Seminar is designed for mental health and medical professionals, consumers, family members, service providers, direct care staff, peer counselors, human services employees, clergy, law enforcement, educators, service organizations, civic groups, policy makers and all interested community members. Part 1 introduces RESPECT as an acronym and provides real life examples on the impact respect (and disrespect) has on a person recovering from a psychiatric disability. Part 2 highlights the dynamics of a human being and how those dynamics are affected by psychiatric illness and treatment experiences. CEUs are available.

Registration and Information:

Advanced registration is strongly suggested. Register on-line and check our website for details and updates on the 2008 RESPECT seminars:

<http://www.dmh.mo.gov/transformation/transformation.htm>

To register via e-mail please provide your name, agency or affiliation (if any), e-mail (for confirmation) and if you are interested in obtaining CEUs.

transformation@dmh.mo.gov

Contact the Office of Transformation regarding your questions or additional information needs.

Phone: 573.526.3702 Toll Free: 800.364.9687

Joel Slack, founder of Respect International LLC, is an international consultant and trainer in the field of mental health. His work combines 10 years of experience as a senior manager in a state mental health agency with his experience as a person recovered from a psychiatric disability.

Following Joel's first year as a collegiate basketball player, he spent seven years battling his toughest opponent - a psychiatric disability that included clinical depression. Following Joel's recovery, he continued with his education and earned a degree in International Economics and Business Psychology from Allegheny College in Meadville, Pennsylvania. Today, his dreams of helping others overcome their disabilities are unfolding in many communities around the world.

Over the years, Joel has served on the National Advisory Councils of the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), the Center for Mental Health Services (CMHS) and Boston University's Psychiatric Rehabilitation Program. Joel serves on several boards including the Global Initiative on Psychiatry, a Netherlands-based international human rights and mental health organization. Additionally, he serves on Mrs. Rosalynn Carter's Mental Health Task Force at the Jimmy Carter Presidential Library in Atlanta, Georgia.

Please note. RESPECT Seminars will be held statewide during the coming months. If you are interested in co-hosting a RESPECT Seminar in your area, please contact the Office of Transformation at 573.526.3702 or transformation@dmh.mo.gov.

---

The RESPECT Seminar is part of Missouri's Mental Health Show Me Series of programs designed to improve public knowledge, eliminate stigma and empower people to move their lives forward regardless of their illness or disability.